Bland, Harry MacNeill 1923-1926

Edward T. Newell Esq
American Numismatic Society
New York City.

22 W. 56
May 11/25

Dear Sir.-

If the enclosed is interesting enough for the Society please keep it. The catalogue description is incorrect for it seems to me that it is the original sketch and the finished drawing and not an impression from the seal.

How does one prefer for membership-

Henry Goldsmith
315 W. ~~115~~ 115th St
New York City.

Mr. Goldsmith has a fine collection of American gold coins and other interests are old New York views and Whitman material. also Lincoln. I think he would be a good addition to the Society.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir:

The new medal intended for the cover of the Commemorative Edition of the New York City Directory I found awaiting me on my desk. It was certainly very thoughtful of you to remember our Society, and we are deeply appreciative of your gift. We are trying to build up our collection of medals and the new acquisition is most timely.

Thanking you again, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,

President.

To Mr. Newell.

This medal is to be issued on the cover of the new "Celebration" edition of the N.Y. City Directory published by R. L. Polk & Co.

a few were given away independently of the book. It was given to me by a member of the firm and I thought the Society might like to have it.
